DEFINITION

‘Social media resources are online services which enable the sharing and publication of content with other users. These include, but are not limited to the following services:

- Facebook
- Blogs
- Micro blogs (especially Twitter)
- YouTube
- Bookmark, photo.video or other content sharing services’

RATIONALE

There can be little doubt that we currently live in an information age where much of the content (photographs, music, video, print) we consume and create is of a digital nature. The distribution and sharing of such material on the Internet via Social Media sites such as Facebook, Twitter, MySpace, YouTube, Google+ etc. has become a feature of our times. Young people are now said to be ‘digital natives’ as the creation and sharing of content comes naturally to them.

Enniscorthy Vocational College recognises the positive aspects of social media providing unique opportunities to participate in interactive discussions and share information on particular topics using a wide variety of social media, such as Facebook, Twitter, blogs and wikis.

Unfortunately there is scope for irresponsible and inappropriate use of Social Media sites and this can lead to bullying, harassment and illegal activity whilst online. We therefore need a policy to ensure the safe and responsible use of Social Media by all members of the school community. This is necessary in order to protect students, staff and the good name of our school.

RELATION TO MISSION STATEMENT

The emphasis in Enniscorthy Vocational College is on care for the individual, respect for others and the promotion of positive behaviour that will enable students to participate safely in a digital world.

AIMS

This Policy aims to:

- Produce a set of strategies for students that will allow them to use Social Media safely and responsibly.
- Protect the integrity and good name of all members of the school community from online abuse.
- Outline behaviours which are unacceptable and the consequences for these.

POLICY CONTENT

1. Strategies to be taught to students to enable safe and responsible use of Social Media.

Use strict privacy settings.

Review all of the options on your privacy settings page. Many sites default settings tend to keep information public until a user makes it private (although Facebook is a little stricter with minors' accounts). "Friends Only" is a good choice for most items, but you can be even more selective.

Be selective and control what you post.

Be selective about what you share by customising the recipients of your posts. Activities on Facebook, including the applications teens use and games they play, can be viewed by others. Remember: Everything online happens in front of a vast, invisible, and often anonymous audience. Once something is out there, it doesn't go away as it can be copied and forwarded easily and quickly. Everything leaves a digital footprint.

As a rule of thumb if you wouldn't be comfortable posting something (pictures comments etc.) on a noticeboard in the school corridor then don't post it online.

You should never post personal details such as your phone number, email address or home address.

Remember that irresponsible online behaviour can damage your real life reputation.

Be selective with friends.

Be careful who you make friends with online. In general it is better to restrict friends to people you know and trust in the real world.

Pre-approve tags.

Choose the settings that allow you to see everything you've been tagged in (including photos) before the tag links to your page.

Use notification settings.

You can tell Facebook that you want to be notified of any activity performed on your name, including photo tags.

Never post your location.

Facebook lets users post their location on every post. Teens should not do this for safety and privacy reasons. Teens can also "tag" their friends' location but you can prevent anyone from tagging your location in the "How Tags Work" section.

If something has been posted that upsets you – tell someone.

If someone is bullying you online, you should:

- Tell your Class Tutor, Year Head, the Deputy Principal or Principal or any Teacher in the school.
- Keep and save any bullying emails or images you have been sent.
- Take a screenshot of any comments that are threatening.
- Make a note of the time and date that messages or images were sent, along with any details you have about the sender.
- Not reply to any bullying messages or get into any online arguments.

Using Social Media on your Mobile Phone.

If your profile is linked to your mobile phone, you should use the website's privacy settings to ensure that your phone number is not visible.

Chat and Voice Over Internet Protocol (VOIP) services. (These allow for communication that may be typed or spoken with or without webcam access)

When using the above you should only communicate with people you trust and remember that other people may be able to view all aspects of the communication.

Watch the clock.

Social media sites can be real time wasters. Hours and hours can go by online - time that should be spent doing homework, studying, reading or exercising.

Appendix A contains links to some online resources that may be useful in dealing with the above subject in class.

Appendix B contains information on reporting inappropriate use on the Facebook site.

2. Unacceptable uses of Social Media sites and their consequences.

Unacceptable use of Social Media sites will include:

- Sending or posting discriminatory, harassing, or threatening messages or images that may cause harm to any member of the school community.
- Forwarding or 'Liking' material that is likely to cause offence or hurt to a third party.
- Sending or posting messages or material that could damage the school's image or reputation.
- Creating a fake profile that impersonates any other member of the school community.
- Sending or posting material that is confidential to the School.
- Uses that violate copyright law, fail to observe licensing agreements or infringe on others intellectual property rights.
- Participating in the viewing or exchange of inappropriate images or obscene material.

The above list is not exhaustive.

While all cases involving the inappropriate use of social media will be dealt with on an individual basis, the school and its Board of Management considers the above to be serious breaches of our Code of Behaviour. Disciplinary consequences up to and including expulsion may be exercised in certain cases. The school reserves the right to investigate allegations of misuse of social media sites which impact on any student or member of staff in the school. In instances where a student is alleged to have engaged in serious misbehaviour outside of school, the school can investigate the allegation where there is 'a clear connection with the school' and a 'demonstrable impact on its work'.

Please see the school's Code of Behaviour for information on the full range of sanctions the school employs and our appeal procedures.
